

Employment Opportunities

Hesperus views employment opportunities not simply as job opportunities, but more importantly as ministry opportunities. We exist to serve others and facilitate an experience characterized by excellence, purpose, and hospitality. It is not about us; rather it is all about the guest and providing an environment whereby God is glorified through His creation, our preparedness, and our service.

Our employment process looks like this:

1. Must be at least 16 years of age at start date of employment.
2. Must be able to provide a health exam performed within the last 24 months in accordance with the requirements of our State of Colorado Child Care License (State Statute 7.711.21).
3. Complete an Employment Application.
4. If selected, participate in a personal interview.
5. If offered a position, successfully complete a full background check (including fingerprinting processed by CBI/FBI) in accordance with the requirements of our State of Colorado Child Care License (State Statute 7.701.33).
6. If hired, commit to serve others in a team environment accepting the expectations of staff.

Expectations of Staff:

1. Be punctual, prepared, and presentable (on time, ready to immediately begin work, and in clean clothing with staff shirt/hat on)
2. Be guest-focused in everything you do
3. Be teachable by leadership staff
4. Maintain a committed walk with Christ characterized by active participation in a local church, and daily, personal, spiritual growth habits.
